POLICY NO: 4-005

Lambton College recognises that its employees are fundamental to its success. The College therefore is committed to attracting and retaining employees of the highest calibre. To achieve this goal, the College has established the following Recruitment and Selection process objectives:

- Promotion and support of the principals of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion
- Hiring on merit, selecting the best qualified individual for a position
- Meet all contractual and statutory requirements

The President will establish procedures governing the recruitment and selection of College employees to ensure compliance with these objectives.
