

Information for Prospective Students

---

Lambton College is a public, non-profit college located in Sarnia, Ontario which has established a licensing agreement in Toronto, Ontario, Canada referred to as Lambton in Toronto.

Lambton in Toronto is located at 265 Yorkland Boulevard (Don Mills and Sheppard) and is a licensing agreement between Lambton College and Cestar College. Lambton College's programs are licensed to and delivered by Cestar College, a licensed private career college.

Students that are registered at Lambton in Toronto shall be deemed students of a public college and as such, shall receive full credit from Lambton College for all Lambton College courses completed at the Cestar College campus in Toronto. Students who meet program graduation requirements will graduate with a credential from a public institution (Lambton College) in the province of Ontario and operating under the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities.

The advantages of studying at Lambton in Toronto are as follows:

- Possible access to a great number of off-campus employment opportunities.
- Public transportation options are more frequent and accessible.
- Possibility of living closer to friends and family.

The main disadvantages of studying at Lambton in Toronto are as follows:

- Living costs may be higher in Toronto than Sarnia.
- Classes are composed of only international students.
- Due to the smaller size of the Cestar College campus in Toronto the breadth of student services, computer and science labs, and recreational facilities will be much less than those offered at Lambton College's main campus in Sarnia. The Cestar College campus comprises of approximately 35,000 square feet of academic and administrative space spanning two office buildings.

Students can transfer to the main campus in Sarnia before or during the first ten days of any semester based on course, program and seat availability. Special permission from the Dean of International must be granted upon receipt of a written request sent by email listing the student's name, Lambton College student ID and reason for requesting the transfer. Transfers during the Co-op semester are not permitted.